Finding Balance stress management toolkit
Stress in the workplace is a serious problem:

- 80% of employees are stressed on the job*
- 42% have left a job due to stress†

* Nielsen (formerly Harris Interactive), April 9, 2014.
Welcome to your Finding Balance toolkit

Stress in America is on the rise – and the leading causes of stress are money and work. It’s a problem that costs U.S. businesses an estimated $300 billion each year in absenteeism, reduced productivity, and employee turnover.* But with this easy-to-use toolkit, you can help your employees start on the path to a less stressed life. Here’s what’s included:

- 8 weekly emails
  to guide your employees through the program, plus a promotional email to kick things off

- A poster and flier
  to promote the program and encourage your employees to participate

- An employee guide
  with facts and tips about stress management

- A workbook
  with activities that help employees see how stress is affecting them, and what they can do about it

All of these tools and resources are available in both English and Spanish.

Maximize your program’s impact with this hands-on action guide. It’s designed for flexibility to fit your organization’s needs – and improve engagement by helping employees find healthy ways to manage stress. Simply check off the boxes as you go through the four steps of a successful program:

1. Assess
   - Use data to learn where your organization stands on workforce health.

2. Plan
   - Set goals, schedule events and activities, and develop a communications strategy.

3. Engage
   - Launch and promote the program to your workforce.

4. Measure
   - Evaluate your program’s success and set future goals.
